

RAY

Since you're reading this, you're obviously looking for a new best friend—and, hey, so am I! I don't care how old you are or what you look like, but in case those things matter to you, I'm approximately 6 years old and that's me in the picture with the one brown eye and one blue eye. My perfect match would be someone who loves feeding me treats by the bushels. I don't mean to brag, but people tell me I'm a lot like Petey from the Little Rascals because I have a stunning patch around my eye. I am completely devoted to those I love. When I'm not admiring your every move, I'd love to be playing ball and going for a walk with you. So, what do you say? Wanna be besties?
